

THE HOME OF AUSTIN AND MAY TAYLOR

Located at 113
The Entrance Road,
The Entrance
In the Waterfront Plaza.

Built circ 1922 by Austin Taylor (son of Richard and Gertrude Taylor).

It is one of the oldest existing buildings in The Entrance and one of the last of the Taylor homes. This home and The Entrance Hotel are the only 2 buildings left standing in The Entrance that were built from bricks manufactured from The Entrance Brickworks kiln.

Austin Taylor was an astute local businessman and well known sportsman.

He was involved in the early Wyong to The Entrance ferry services and later branched out into motorised bus transport.

He was responsible for building the first purpose built bank (Commercial Bank) which is the now the 'Mojo's Cafe', Page's Liquor Store (first two storey building - now Baits are Us) and Lee's Butchery which is now the Chicken Shop.
