

FISHING MADE EASY

The closure of The Entrance Channel has always been a problem. Today Wyong Council ensures that the channel remains open. This 1939 photograph shows the community taking advantage of the huge number of fish that became available on the run-out tide. Most of the people are shown with scoop nets reaping the benefits of easy fishing.

