

WAIWERA GUEST HOUSE

Located at 41
The Entrance Road,
The Entrance.

'Waiwera' Guest House was built by Louis Taylor (son of Richard and Gertrude Taylor). It was leased to Mr A H Lewes who was the first Post Master in The Entrance.

It was also known as 'Wandilla'.

Alfred and Ethel Watkins and Leila Lockhard had also operated the guest house.

Eventually it became the Taylor resident and was then sold to Barry Wain. He demolished the old guest house and developed the site into the 'El Lago Motel'.

The land has been earmarked for future development.
